

Bloomers

Workshops for Women in the Second Half of Life

You are a baby boomer, but did you know you are also a Bloomer?

You have traveled through a variety of territories and tasted the many flavors of life from joy and pain to failure and accomplishment. Now you face a new chapter. It's time to bloom! This is a time when we are most in tune with the spiritual. It is a time to reflect and heal; a time to gather resources and fortify; a time to shape a new vision. Join us in a relaxed atmosphere as we explore paths to fulfillment for this exciting phase.

Cost: $20 per workshop or $35 for both workshops

Time: 2-5 pm

Location: Care and Counseling of Georgia, Clairmont Office, First-floor Conference Room

March 25: OUR STORIES, OURSELVES:
Strength and Identity, Visions and Dreams

FANNING FLAMES
Maps and fuel for the journey

To register:

Option 1 ~ Visit our website at www.cccgeorgia.org, print out the Bloomers registration, and mail it to the address below.

Option 2 ~ Contact Jackie Barker at (404) 636-1457.

Care and Counseling Center of Georgia
c/o Jackie Barker, Registrar
Bloomers Workshops
1814 Clairmont Road
Decatur, GA 30033

For more information contact:

Allison Rhodes at (404) 949-0562 or
Ellen Yankee at (404) 636-1457 ext. 412

Allison Rhodes is a “seasoned” pastoral therapist who loves working with one of the world’s greatest resources: women in the second half of life! She is mother to two incredible daughters and excited about this chapter of her life. Allison is part of the counseling staff at CCCG, and practices at the Cathedral Counseling Center in Buckhead.

Ellen T. Yankee is a licensed psychologist who has practiced, taught, and explored spiritually for the past quarter century or so. She has experienced divorce, lengthy adult singlehood, remarriage, late motherhood, relative wealth and relative poverty, and truly marvelous women friends. She is eager to share what she has experienced and learned, and to learn from others, in these workshops.